Listen up, everyone! The Class of 2004 has a lot to say. We say it in our classrooms and prove it on our playing fields. Since actions speak louder than words, we make a difference with clubs and organizations that reach out and touch others. We sound off on the ideas that matter most. We twist and shout at proms and dances, and the sounds of music flow from our chorus and practice rooms and from stadiums wherever our band competes. And to stay in touch the Class of 2004 will phone a friend or two, shout out to classmates, and make the Internet our playground. At B.M.H.S. we're committed to making noise, making a connection, making a difference. Can you hear us now? Just listen.

Sophomore

Semi

On May 3, 2002, the class of 2004 piled into Lenzi's Function Hall in Dracut for their first formal extravaganza, the sophomore semi-formal. First, everyone stopped for couple shots and buddy shots with the photographer. After that, the dancing began and didn't stop for hours. The shoes came off and the ties were loosened. The hairspray kept the "do's" in place and the music kept the energy high. The food wasn't great, but we weren't there for the food. We were there for the atmosphere of fun and excitement. Throughout the night, flashes could be seen going off as pictures were taken to preserve the memories of this night for years to come. Everyone cleaned up nice and enjoyed a fun night of glamour and glitz!

Opposite Page Top: Amy Durant, Nathan Sylvia, and Kristen Doble wait for the line at the buffet to die down before grabbing a bite to eat.

Twist and Shout

On Saturday May 17, 2003, the Hyatt Regency in Cambridge was the elegant site for the Billerica Memorial High School Junior Prom. The limos started rolling in at six o' clock after photo shoots in yards all over town. If we do say so ourselves, we were stunning. Despite the lame D.J. and tight dance floor, everyone boogied. Visits to the buffet table punctuated the dancing throughout the evening, the desserts were especially tasty and high in calories. Couples took photos in front of the gazebo in the courtyard, and buddy shots were taken shortly after that inside. At the stroke of midnight, the dancing finally stopped and everyone got into their pumpkins and were whisked away into the starry night.

The Pep Rally always marks the end of Spirit Week. Pajama Day, Celebrity Day, Class Unity Day (Beach Day), Mismatched Day, and Class Color Day were all fun, but the pep rally marked the time for face paint, homemade tee-shirts and green and white. We listened to the speeches over the low growl of the crowd in the Memorial Gym. Mrs. Dullette gave her traditional uplifting speech. The band, cheerleaders, and color guard added to the exciting feeling felt by all. Then we put aside our class competition and came together as a school to root on our determined football team. After the fall sports captains gave their speeches for their respective teams, Coach Flynn gave his inspirational "Billerica Pride-Beat Chelmsford" oratory. When all the speeches were done, the announcement was made: the seniors won, and what an appropriate outcome. Despite a certain sophomore's feeble attempt to thwart our penny war alliances, the seniors emerged victorious. They heard us then! And nobody can forget the infamous silly string incident.

Thanksgiving Day Game

On November 27, 2003, the Billerica Memorial High School Football team marched to the Reservation at the Marshall Middle School to the tune of "Amazing Grace" played on the bagpipes. The Indians were looking to finish off their dream season on Thanksgiving day and defeat their long time rival, Chelmsford, for the first time since 1999. Billerica had won six straight games and had a conference record of 6-1. The winner of the contest would earn a bid in the playoffs and a share of the MVC title. Through the first half, Billerica battled Chelmsford better than any other team in the league had before. The Indians went into the locker room at halftime with the score 7-0 in favor of Chelmsford. Billerica continued to fight throughout the entire game, but costly turnovers led to a Chelmsford victory. The final score was Chelmsford 28 and Billerica 7. Billerica's only touchdown came on a 60 yard touchdown run by Dan Pope. The crowd of nearly 5000 supported the Indians until the last second and gave the departing seniors the respect they had worked for.

Seniors

In September 2000 at B.M.H.S. the Class of 2004 came together to start a conversation that's gone on for four years. We started talking the moment we hit the cafeteria for orientation and we haven't stopped since. Communication is key, they say, and our class grasped that concept. We've talked about Columbine and September 11, 2001. We've talked about Britney and Christina and NASCAR and the Sox. We've talked about teacher layoffs and Saddam Hussein. And sometimes we talked about the Civil War and Hamlet, angles and accounting. But everyone here on the following pages had something to say, something to add to the conversation. We're over three hundred strong individual voices but together we inquired, whined, explained, listened, cheered, debated, gossiped, argued, sang, and flapped our way through B.M.H.S. Listen to what we have to say.

The Spring 2004 production of Mame, presented in the Heffernan auditorium, was a bittersweet moment for true believers in the musical tradition of B.M.H.S. This energetic and entertaining venture was sadly the last in a series of musicals directed by Ms. Susanne Robertson, queen of our choral department and an inspiration to so many students who have found joy and even a career in musical theater. Mame is the story of a middle-aged iconoclast in the age of pre-1929 excess who introduces her nephew to the joys of "opening a new window everyday." The bright Jerry Herman score and brilliant art deco set was managed with wit, agility, talent by a great cast and crew including seniors Ashley Andreasen, Dave Babcock, Meg DeMonico, Jess Dickie, Matt Eldridge, Kaitlyn Gobiell, Anthony Heiser, Brian Kovacs, Meg Lutinski, Michelle O'Donnell, and Julie Schoenthal.

To the Members of the Class of 2004:

The Class of 2004 was required by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to successfully complete the MCAS testing in order to receive a high school diploma. You met this challenge and exhibited a high level of achievement. This is a credit to you and your families.

Your lives will be filled with greater and more important challenges than the MCAS graduation requirement. Use the motivation and work ethic applied in high school in all your future challenges. You have proven yourselves and I am confident this will continue in the future.

I join with the Billerica School Committee, the faculty and staff of Billerica Schools in congratulating each and every member of the Class of 2004. May your future be filled with happiness and achievement.

Sincerely,

June, 2004

Dear Graduates,

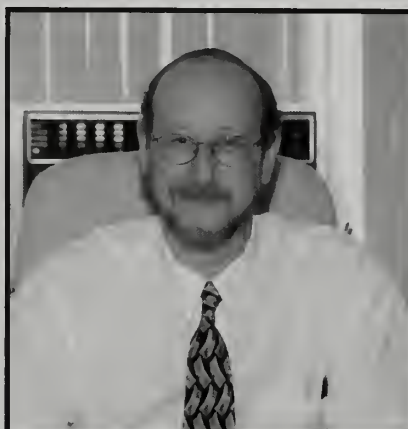

I would, once again, like to congratulate you on the successful completion of your high school career. In educating you, we have tried to accomplish three things: we have introduced you to some of the best thinking of the past; we have sought to prepare your minds for an uncertain future where knowledge and information will be drawn upon in uncertain ways which may be difficult to anticipate; and, we have tried to model aspects of civility in the treatment of people and things. We ask that you continue to draw upon these influences in order to identify with the ethical, moral, and responsible aspects of your goals. In so doing, we hope that as you pursue those goals, you will continue to develop a growing capacity for determining what is appropriate and what is right.

As a group, you, the Class of 2004, have learned the principles that we have sought to teach you. You are well prepared to meet the challenges of a future filled with both opportunity and some uncertainty, and you have shown us that you are capable of acting, in ways that promote a common good that unites us all in common cause.

With that said, I look toward your futures with the greatest of confidence. Congratulations and, best wishes,

Dr. Richard Saffer
Principal, Billerica Memorial High School

Listen up!

Sure, anyone can hear the rustling of autumn leaves, but that's only one note in fall's tune at B.M.H.S. We hear the cheerleaders' shouts and the referee's call. We hear the band's beat and the whoops of the crowd gone wild. We hear the snap of the pistol at the cross-country meet, the splash at the beginning of the swim race, the whoosh of a nine iron slicing through crisp air. We hear the noisy encouragement of proud fans as another net captures another ball for another Indian victory.

Boys Soccer

Needing a win to stay alive for the league title, the BMHS boys soccer team faced Haverhill under the lights on senior night at the Marshall field. Senior tri-captains led the way with Jim Geary on defense, Kevin Baker's one goal, and Tim Conway's two goals for a 3-1 win. Two days later at Methuen, a defensive wall led by seniors Dave Bulhoes, Jared Keefe, Mike Brooks, and Ryan Muller allowed for a 3-1 win and the MVC Small School title for the third time in four years. The team had a league record of 10-1-1 and an overall record of 12-5-2. MVC All Star players were junior Marco Ferrara, senior Dave Bulhoes, and senior Captain Jim Geary. MVC All Conference players were junior goalkeeper Jason Nieuwboer, senior Captain Kevin Baker, and senior Captain Tim Conway. Senior Captain Tim Conway was selected as MVC player of the year. Coach Angelo Mara was selected as Lowell Sun Coach of the Year.

Girls Soccer

The 2003 soccer season brought great success to the girls' soccer team. The team made a great run into the state tournament, reaching the state semifinals. Although the girls did not win the League, they still finished with a 15-3-3 record.

One major highlight of the girls season was the award for Best Sportsmanship of the MIAA for girl's soccer.

Important wins against Lowell, Tewksbury, Chelmsford, Methuen, Dracut, Haverhill and Central Catholic are a few of the great memories.

Girls Volleyball

The 2003 girls volleyball team began their season with great anticipation. Senior captains, Erica Kelley, Jackie Knight and Katie Mara led the team throughout the season. Seniors Deena Collier, Christina Ooherty, Courtney Locke and Meaghan Sawyer composed the strong force of senior veterans. The juniors, were also a strong asset to the team. The sophomores showed great improvement and indicate a positive future for the team.

The team ended the season with a record of 9-11. Although it was not the repeat of the 2002 MVC and Division I Championship, previous season, the girls ended the season with a close game against Chelmsford that showed them as the talented team they were. The end was bittersweet for the seniors, especially missing the tournament by one game, but it completed the collection of memories that have accumulated over their four years.

Golf

The Golf team had a building season this autumn, as there were only two seniors to lead the squad. Captains Ryan McGonagle and Tim Goldsmith led the team to a record of 7-8-1, just shy of a state tournament berth. Robby Jones played well all year at number one in the line-up, and sophomore Brad DePierro was a strong second. The team was very young this year, but should gain strength and experience in the upcoming seasons.

Getting in the Mood

Fall Cheering

The football cheering season was an incredible one. Although we weren't as successful as we were hoping to be, placing just third at leagues, the season had millions of memories. For the seniors on the team there were several unforgettable events: Senior night, the 0-4 come back of the football team, our last pep rally, and, of course, our last and final Thanksgiving game. We shared these good memories with the football team who joined us at post-game rituals at the 99s and at toilet paper battles that went on through the summer. We were supportive of each other, and that made for the incredible year that we had and that all the seniors will forever miss.

Football

The 2003 BMHS Indians football team was not predicted to be a major player in the Merrimack Valley Conference. After suffering four straight losses many people began to think that the Indians would have a disappointing year and finish at the bottom of the MVC. However, almost overnight the Indians exploded into a high powered offense and ferocious defense. Inspired by new Mohawk haircuts and the sensational running of senior and co-captain Dan Pope, the Indians went on to win six straight games. The offensive line, one of the best in Billerica history, opened up enormous holes for Dan Pope as he rushed for over 1,200 yards and sixteen touchdowns. The offensive line featured senior co-captain Chris Whitman, seniors David Darvish, Bobby Young, Andy Donahy, and junior Nick Gallant. Leading one of the more feared defenses in the MVC were senior co-captains Bobby Walsh and Corey Williams. Walsh and Williams combined for many outstanding hits and interceptions.

The Indians string of victories came after a last second game-winning drive against Lowell. Billerica was also able to put aside MVC adversaries such as Methuen, Tewksbury, Haverhill, Dracut, and Andover. The 2003 BMHS football team exceeded every pre-season expectation and had a great season.

Marching Band & Silver Jade Color Guard

The 2002 season was a tough one for the girls' varsity soccer team. The team was young and the competition was fierce. With a team of only fifteen players, the girls really had to work hard and play together as a team. They played some great games this season but unfortunately with a record of 6-9-3, the team missed qualifying for the state tournament by one win. Senior captains, Erica Knowles and Jaime Schepici, the only two seniors to stay with the team throughout the season, were strong leaders and helped to bring the girls together despite losses of players from the team and an extremely difficult season.

Boys Cross Country

This season of cross-country was full of great memories. Although the team's goals were not reached, we were able to have fun running together, creating life long friendships in the process.

After our first loss of the season, Coach Michael Granfield was able to keep our morale up, helping us to reach our personal goals. All of us were able to improve on our times from the previous years and watch as we became better through the season.

There were a lot of great senior runners who came out

Girls Cross Country

Senior captains Katie Haneffant, Jessica Wilson, and Jenna Glazer led the girls' cross-country team in the 2003 season. Leading the pack to decisive wins against their division rivals Lawrence and Notre Dame were Jenna Glazer, Jessica Girard, Megan McLaughlin, and Meghan Sullivan. Also running well for the team were seniors Jenn Rizzari and Nicole Lucey, along with juniors Emily Sullivan, Jamie Whiteway, Jenna Sandler and Ashley Evans. Rounding out the varsity team for the Indians were sophomore Ashley Sawyer and freshman Brittany Whiteway. The girls improved with every meet, and scored more points against Lowell and Andover than they had since 1997.

At the League Meet, Jenna Glazer finished 5th in the Division, while Jessica Girard finished 14th. Jenna Glazer, Jess Girard, Meghan Sullivan, Ashley Sawyer, Ashley Evans and Jenn Rizzari were all named to the Lowell Sun All Star Second Team, while Jenna Glazer was also a Division Two All Star in the Merrimack Valley.

Under the guidance of Coach Murphy, the season was a great success, and the girls had an awesome time. Next year the girls hope to continue their successes, and capture a few more victories in the 2004 season.

Swimming and Diving

The Billerica Memorial High School girls swim team, led by coaches Anthony Fiore, Desiree Dellanno, and assistant coach Linda Kuntz, had another great season in 2003. After losing a strong pool of seniors after the 2002 season, there were doubts as to how well the team would do. Although the team slipped from first to second place in both the Division II and MVC League Meet standings, the year was overall very successful thanks to the addition of several talented freshmen and the hard work of the veteran swimmers. The team was led by twelve seniors including Krysti Bradley, Jocelyn Burke, Stephanie Costello, Christina Depavao, Beth Donovan, Caroline Draine, Nicole Joyner, Athena Karipidis, Michelle Maimone, Bethany Meagher, Dana Pierce, and Caitlyn Reidy, all of whom contributed greatly to the team's success. In addition to the great regular season results, the swim team also had several members advance to the Massachusetts Sectional and State meets. Good luck next year girls! P.S.- Take good care of the mascots!

Make Some Noise!

The alarm goes off early in the morning for Billerica winter athletes, who often miss the dinner bell later in the evening. They go to school in the dark and come home in the dark, but as snow and ice pile up, the Indians take their talents indoors where they dunk, cheer, vault, hurdle, pin and skate their way to winning seasons. Our athletes show their prowess in a variety of settings: sweaty gyms, chilly rinks, dusty mat rooms, and gritty tracks. But everywhere we hear the sounds of athletes getting the job done and fans screaming support along the way.

Wrestling

The wrestling season went well this season. We started off strong winning our first few matches. Then we went into a bit of a slump, but picked it up later on in the season. Key wrestlers this year were Carl Anderson, Darren Cassidy, Captain Cory Wilson, and Captain John Ortolani, all of whom placed at sectionals and went to states. Other team contributors include Justin Infanger, Eric Tibbets, Rashad Ahmed, Eric Blais, Dave Zammuto, John Tilley, and Tony Vallicca. We had a good season and the team should be even stronger next year.

Boys Basketball

The 2004 Varsity Boys Basketball team came out tough at the beginning of the year, playing hard in their loss versus #1 Central Catholic. The Indians finished the season 6 - 10 with tough league wins against Dracut and Chelmsford. However, the team was unable to carry the momentum throughout the year as they suffered tough losses against Methuen (OT) and Lowell.

With six graduating Seniors: Mike Cole, Ryan McGonagle, Joe Higgins, John Martell (Capt.), Rory Ellis (Capt.) and Allan DelValle (Capt.), Coach Mike Dagle will look to add new talent to the returning squad of Sophomores Mark Mastrullo, Jason Augustino, and Juniors Mike Burzyk, Mukasa Mubirumusoke, David Spivey, and Stephen Tirella for next years run at the state tournament.

Girls Basketball

This year the girls basketball team finished the season with an 8-12 record. Although the team did not have a great record, the strong leadership was still shown by seniors Captain Ashley MacDonald, Captain Shannon Burke, Captain Brett Maron, Katie Mara, and Meagan Sawyer. Other important contributors to the team were juniors Nicole LeVecque, Calee Benson, Laura Sears and Sam Laferriere and sophomores

Michele Green, Ashley Sherman, Jenna Carideo, and Jenna Matthews. Even though the team missed the state tournament, they finished the season with a big win against Dracut on senior night. Retiring seniors wish next years team the best of luck in their season. They're convinced that the team will carry on with the tradition of Billerica pride.

The seniors of the team were Christina Albano, Lindsay Duffin, Jacqui Gallant, and Katie Sinclair. The Juniors were Ashley Boyle, Lori DeBarros, Kristen Hopkins, and Courtney Lavery. The Sophomores were Emily Holland, Stefany Ramos, Kristen Sarazen, and Melanie Shaw. The freshman were Amanda Fredrickson, Nicole McCoy, and Kristyn Yianacopolus. This year was a year which BMHS cheering made a name for themselves. At leagues we placed first taking the MVC champ title once again this year. At regional we were told we qualified but then had to qualify with a score of 80 to go on to states. Billerica was the only team to qualify for states, receiving an 80.5. At states we did well but unfortunately did not place. This season was an eventful and progressive one for BMHS cheering.

Girls Hockey

The Girl's Varsity Hockey team was back competing for their third season. The team had high hopes to make it to the state championship play-offs. The team had a strong start to the season and they looked very strong. However, midway through the season the lady Indians found themselves struggling to maintain their competitive edge. With a few of the key player on the injured list, Coach Carrabba had to rearrange the starting lines. The game with Wilmington was for the league championship and it was a close game. Even though the team was disappointed with that loss, they realized that they still had a chance at States. It was not to be this season, however, the retiring seniors wish the team well in their next season.

A new found sense of team unity inspired the team to give it their all. Freshman members Stacey Etherington and Heather Perkins were strong competitors in such events as the uneven bars, floor exercise, and the balance beam.

Junior members Jen Bauer and Jess Bejian brought back consistant scores that helped the team have it's best meet in three years. Michelle O'Donnell recieved the MVP Award and Genevieve O'Donnell the Sportsmanship Award. All things considered the team demonstrated a positive attitude and enthusiasm all season.

Talk It Up!

The snow has finally melted, the flowers are in bloom, and Indian athletes step outside again. Disciplined bodies glide through the warm, fresh air with ease, and spheres of all sizes are thrown, hurled, hit, and pitched into various mitts, sticks, nets, and rackets. Our athletes strive for the blooming ace, the clutch base hit, the hard-earned goal, the all-time best, and the sacred spike. New milestones are set, old records broken, and once again the B.M.H.S. teams are the talk of the town in the greenest of seasons.

Boys Baseball

Only two words can be used to describe the 2004 Baseball Team's season: adversity and triumph. After graduating what could be said to be the most talented class of baseball players (Class of 2003), Coach Sid knew it was going to take a miracle to put together a championship team. Well for Coach Sid that miracle came in the form of 15 ball players.

After starting the season 0-4 the community was quick to believe what was expected of this team was nothing, but Coach Sid got the team together and explained that they were a great team not playing to its full potential. The team agreed that no matter what happened with the season they were all proud to put on a Billerica Indian jersey. On that note the team took 6 out of their next 7 games putting them right back in the MVC Title hunt. With outstanding pitching from Nadolny and a powerful offense consisting of Williams, Pope, and Pope the Indians felt unbeatable. The Indians took 4 out of their last 5 games and carried that right into the tourney with a strong win in the preliminary round over Gloucester, 8-3. The Indians drew Reading in the first round of the tourney and with strong pitching from Williams, clutch hitting from Pope, Price, and Allosso, plus strong defense all around the boys advanced to the quarterfinals with a 7-5 victory. The Indians were to face off against Newton-North in the quarters. The Indians kept the dream season alive with a 4-1 win. This put the Indians in the semifinals against St. John's Prep where the Indians came out on top 4-2. Our Indians fought hard in the Division I North game against Peabody, but their storybook season ended with a 3-6 loss.

It was a great run. Defensive standouts for the Indians throughout the season were Paul Cawthron, Frosh phenom Dan Wilson, Chris Hartery, Joe Higgins, and Ryan McGonagle. The entire Indians team would like to thank the BMHS community for its support.

Girls Softball

The 2004 girl's softball season was filled with hard work and determination. The team had considerable senior leadership from captains Erica Kelly, Katie Mara, and Jessica Wilson. Along by their sides came guidance from Amy Simmons, Jen Rizzari, Jacqui Gallant, and Jackie Knight. The season got off to a slow start statistically for the lady Indians, but each day we stuck together and worked harder at every drill. As a team we came together on and off the field even though we continued to feel the heartbreak of many close losses. The team "kept on rowing" with the encouragement they needed from Coach Higgins and Coach Townsend. From stellar pitching, to solid defence, and some big bats, it appeared as if the team was on it's way to a winning record. Although the team did not have enough wins to compete in the state tournament, we will always recall the memories we created, especially at the lady Indians new home - the Hall of Fame Field.

Boys Lacrosse

The boys lacrosse team had a stellar season. They ended with a 10-6 record, good enough for the MVC Championship, along with two other teams. Led by senior captains Dave Bulhoes, John Ortolani, and Bobby Walsh, the Indians produced many big wins over Acton-Boxboro, Lexington, Xaverian, and Newton-South. MVC All-Conference honors were received by seniors Dave Bulhoes and John Ortolani, and juniors Adrien Peacock, Dave Spivey, and Nick Pinto. MVC All-Stars were senior Bobby Walsh, and juniors Dave Scarfo and Billy Shaw. Stepping up for the boys were seniors Mike Bozza, Bobby Young, Terry Soloski and Ryan Catania. Juniors Chris Martineau, Romie Collins, Danny Cain, Pat Abrahamson, Keith Dangelo and Dan Granfield really brought up their game for the 2004 season. Young talent in Steve O'Connell, Leif Abrahamson and Keith Merluzzo really had a lot of potential.

Girls Lacrosse

The winning recipe for a great lacrosse season: a new coaching staff, a beautiful field to call their own, and three determined seniors: Captains Ashley MacDonald and Shannon Burke and Shayla Sarno who had the motivation for a championship season. The Billerica High girls lacrosse team finished off the season with a 15-4 record, beating Andover for the League Championship. This was the first league title the Billerica girls high school lacrosse team has ever claimed. Although a very young team, their pride and intensity overcame their young age. With the help of their senior captains, who were two of the leading scorers in the state, they were victorious, only losing one league game. Towards the end of the season, as games got more critical, the Billerica lady Indians stepped up and played to their highest potential. The seniors made a massive impact on their last season, as well as on the 11 year history of the girls lacrosse program.

Boys Tennis

Looking back over the past four years the Boys Tennis Team has changed considerably. The biggest change was the arrival of Coach Colangelo. This year we had honed our skills and arrived ready for the challenge. Returning seniors Greg Duane and Chris Dobi were quickly paired for the season and became a strong doubles team. Meanwhile seniors Matt Knowles and Matt Uglietta teamed up for first doubles. Unfortunately, Matt suffered a season ending knee injury. Senior Mike Croke played both Varsity and JV matches with an undefeated varsity record. The team qualified for the state tournament with a 9 out of 16 record. Although we were eliminated in the first round of the tournament we are proud of our accomplishments and personal growth. We wish our luck to next year's tennis team.

Girls Tennis

The 2004 tennis season started out on a good foot led by senior captains Meredith Wyatt and Megan Forti. The loss of seniors from last year was a concern; however, the addition of freshman players Julia Brodowski and Brianna Torpey filled the void. Our first game was a tough competition against Andover, but we did not allow the loss to dampen our spirit. New partners Meredith Wyatt and Kelley Quane were adjusting at first doubles, and Brianna Torpey was trying to tame third singles. The team was to experience success with these changes with a win over Lawrence.

Shortly into the season the first varsity line-up was established: Julia Brodowski at first singles, Megan Forti at second singles, Brianna Torpey at third singles, Meredith Wyatt and Kelley Quane at first doubles and Emily Keegan and Meg Glennon at second doubles. Things were going well, but the other teams in our division were very competitive, and the season was up and down. Good luck to retiring seniors Jocelyn Burke, Katie Hannefant, Brett Marron, Meg Forti, and Meredith Wyatt.

Boys Volleyball

The 2004 boys volleyball season was one of the most successful of the past decade. After struggling through two difficult seasons (0-18 and 6-12), the team finally came back strong to win the MVC Division 2 Volleyball Championship title with a record of 13-7. This task was accomplished by a skilled team of veteran seniors, as well as by some hardworking underclassmen. Their first place finish in Division 2 guaranteed them a spot in the state tournament, but the Indians were defeated by St. John's Prep in the first round. Senior Captains Allan DelValle and Tim Goldsmith were chosen as members of the All-conference team and the Lowell

Sun All Stars.. Allan was also voted Player of the Year for Division 2 and Boston Globe All-Scholastic. Senior Captain Tim Strazzere and Senior Jon Nixon, also chosen for the MVC All Star team, were the leaders of the team and their setting was tremendous all year. Justin Njus, on crutches for the beginning of the season, was able to make a strong comeback for the team and helped them win with strong blocking and hitting skills. "Silent Spiker" Brian Griffiths was vital to the team and Nawaz Kamthewala, sidelined much of the year due to illness, was an asset to the team with strong serving and passing skills.

B.M.H.S. Theater Company Presents "Arsenic and Old Lace"

Farce and physical comedy were the ingredients of an antic Drama Club production of Arsenic and Old Lace, produced by Ms. Yoniak in November and starring a merry band of thespians, many from the Class of 2004. The play revolves around the frenzied life of one of the most dysfunctional fictional families in the American Theatre. Murderous little old ladies, Irish cops, a confused minister, and a harried nephew whose uncle thinks he's Theodore Roosevelt visiting the Panama Canal in the cellar are the denizens of this crazy stew, and played to the hilt by seniors in the company, including Kaitlyn Gobiell, Chris Silva, Courtney Saulnier, Erin Stephens-North, Ashley Andreasen, and David Babcock.

Senior prom has always been dubbed as a night to remember: and what a night it was for the class of 2004. The Cambridge Marriott awaited all of us as we climbed into our cars or limos in our formal wear anticipating a night that would not soon be forgotten. Once inside the Marriott, couples waited in line for pictures while others found their tables. It can be said that everyone cleaned up nice. The boys from their shiny black shoes to their bowties, and the girls, from their freshly painted nails up the very last bobby pin, were all gorgeous as they made their way to different tables greeting our classmates. Some went straight for the cracker and veggie table because dinner would not be served for a while. When dinner was finally served to us by waiters in a three course style, it was very filling. The last course, the cake, gave us just the right amount of energy we needed to dance the night away. The dancing began and didn't stop until the DJ had to pack up. The DJ was very good, giving glow-in-the dark party favors from time to time. There was a taste of music for everyone and it seemed like the whole class was crowded on the dance floor. Cameras flashed non-stop throughout the night as guys and girls alike hoped to savor every moment in a photograph. The array of colored dresses and different types of tuxes really showed the diversity and unique qualities of the class of 2004. This was our night; we will not forget the time we had at our senior prom.

After the Class of 2004 had graduation rehearsal in the memorial gym of the high school, they traveled to Cedardale in Georgetown, MA, where food, games, pools, and relaxation awaited them. After a stressful senior year of college applications and planning the future, it was now a good chance to relax. There were fields, a pool and hot tub, tennis courts, and even mini-golf; something for everyone to enjoy! When we got there, the grill was already fired up, and we were provided with a fantastic cookout of hamburgers, hot dogs, salad, and chips. After everyone had eaten the fun began. Despite the bleak weather, the Class of 2004 made the best of the day and had a terrific time. There were some brave souls who ventured into the "COLD" pool. Others retained their body heat by cramming into the Jacuzzi. There was some intense competition happening both on the tennis courts and the basketball courts, and a game of wiffle ball broke out as well. The volleyball net and the mini golf course were big attractions, and quite a few good plays were made during games played throughout the day. Although the weather could have been more cooperative, we had a great day as we celebrated one of the final days that we would be together as the Class of 2004!

Graduation

The class of 2004 anxiously awaited their commencement in the lobby area of Tsongas Arena as their relatives and friends filled the seats. Former teachers milled around with the graduates, congratulating and recalling memories. Bobby pins were used to keep our hats in place, and airbrushed artwork and names could be seen here and there on the tops of mortarboards. After a wait, it came time to line up in our respective positions. Crowded in a hot hallway, the nerves flared as we awaited our grand entrance. Soon the band began to play and we began our march into the arena. The girls were handed roses as they entered. The Tsongas was a buzz as we piled into our seats. After speeches from Valedictorian Erin Stephens-North and Salutatorian Caitlin Stephens-North, we heard from our Class President Lindsay Ouffen. All the speeches were well prepared, and kept the audience intrigued. Shortly after the speeches, names were called. Each member of the class had their own special moment as they proudly ascended to the stage and received their diplomas; a moment that would stick in our minds for a long time. After obtaining our diplomas, we processed through a large gauntlet of former teachers offering smiles and hugs. After all 371 names were called, Lindsay Ouffen was invited on stage to lead the turning of the tassels. Before we knew it, it was over and caps were flying everywhere. We then marched out for the last time as a class. After pictures were taken with friends and family, we parted ways, but the class of 2004 will always remember June 3rd as the night we officially graduated from high school and stepped into our futures.

"My greatest hope for the Class of 2004 is that you may live in active relationship with Beauty, be moved by the wonders and horrors around you, and react with energy. Either through its presence or its absence, Beauty defines all things worthwhile. Human kindness, a piece of transcendent artwork, a succulent bit of food are all incarnations of Beauty. Apathy, hate, intolerance, superficiality are found where Beauty is not."

Erin Stephens-North
Valedictorian

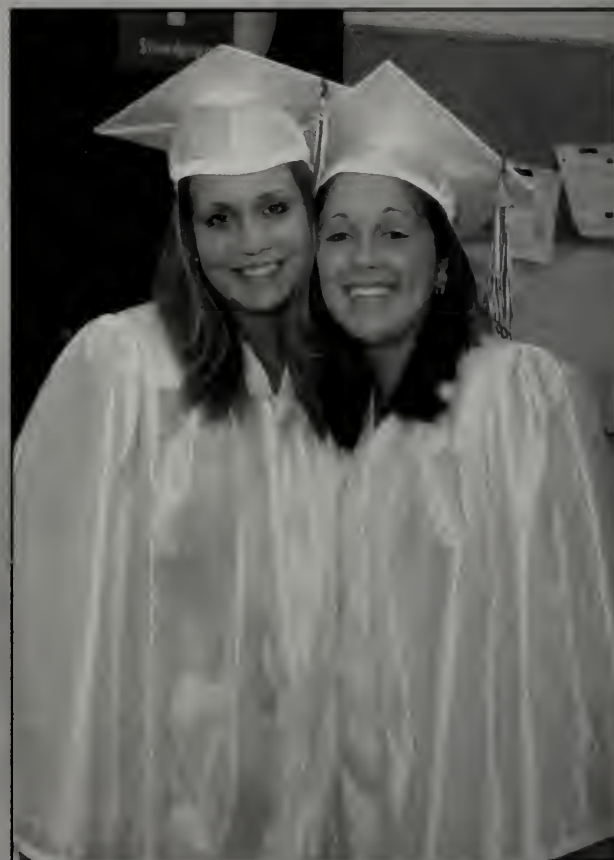

"Yes, being ourselves is an active process, not a passive one. This means that at every moment we must stop and ask ourselves, 'Why? Why am I doing this? What do I truly want to achieve here?' and then let our answers guide our next step. If we don't stop and ask why, we aren't truly in control of our lives; they are in control of us. If we don't stop and ask why, we may be living society's ideals, but not our own."

Caitlin Stephens-North
Salutatorian

Right: Meredith and Meghan look forward to graduation.

"My years at Billerica Memorial High School can best be described as diverse, full of so many experiences and friendships. All of this is a result of the way I grew up in Billerica. They say it is important to remember where you came from, to remember your roots...Many things have happened to us in the past four years and it would be crazy to think that we haven't been shaped by it all."

Lindsay Duffin
President of The Class of 2004

Dr. Sheehy, a member of the first class to graduate from the "new" BMHS in 1956, has worked locally in the areas of health, education, and the arts. She developed a unique peace initiative with Catholic and Protestant student teachers from Ireland. Dr. Sheehy is currently Dean of Lowell campus for Middlesex Community College.

This year, Billerica's all night post-graduation party, The Blast, was a huge success. Everyone arrived around 11pm, and were welcomed into the gym which had been decorated with palm trees and giant murals of volcanoes and a shipwreck. In addition to this, blow up flamingoes, monkeys, balloons and treasure chests could be found around the room. The back gym was filled with games like giant sumo wrestling suits, several obstacle courses, the gauntlet, and a karaoke machine. Throughout the night, the class of 2004 could be seen having caricatures drawn, fake tattoos put on, getting picture pins made, admiring the magician and his amazing balloon creations, or playing jeopardy. In spite of the late hours, spirits remained high with everyone decked out in the colorful leis and bandanas that had been handed out at the door on the way in. The graduates sure did not have to worry about being hungry, because every couple of hours a new treat arrived. First Chinese food, next pizza and pasta, then ice cream sundaes, and finally doughnuts in the morning. Soda, Fruit 20, and waters were also handed out to wash it all down. Around 4am, everyone gathered in the front gym for the raffle where over 100 great prizes were given out. Gift certificates for restaurants, hair cuts, clothing stores, and beauty salons were some of the most popular items, while TVs, VCR/DVD players, CD players, food, vacuums, Brita water filters, and a refrigerator were also handed out. Two extremely lucky graduates were each awarded a computer, one a laptop and one desktop version! Finally, at 5am, the graduates all sleepily made their ways to their cars, prizes and complimentary Blast towels and t-shirts in tow, and headed home for a much needed nap.

Cassandra Hickey

Looking back at a conversation we had about two years ago when you informed us you were pregnant, while we were supportive we also told you how difficult things would be raising a child, and how important your education was to you and baby Francisco. Your hard work and determination have shown us what a beautiful intelligent woman you have become. Going to school, holding a job, and raising a handsome young baby haven't always been easy but you did it! We are so very proud of you and we love you very much. With college just over the horizon we know you will do well. You have a caring loving heart and strong determination. Cassie, you've made us very proud parents. Thanks you for all the joy and love you have given and continue to give us.

All our Love,
Mom & Dad

Mike Nadolny

Our Little Indian

You came to us one hot summer day in 1986.
From that point on our lives changed forever.
A child is joy, sorrow, exhilaration, excitement and heartbreak for a parent, often at the same time.

We watched you as you have grown.
Learning to walk and talk, making friends, playing games, these are all part of a parent's joy. We feel your pain, share your joy, cry when you cry, laugh when you laugh.

Over the years you have shown us compassion, courage, caring, independence, and an ability to always see the good in people. Your beliefs and convictions are strong, and you are confident in your identity. A parent can't ask for much more.

The picture here depicts your joyful, playful spirit which makes you who you are. Our greatest wish for you is to never lose that spirit, it is your greatest gift to this world.

With all our love and admiration,
Mom and Dad

Katie Haneffant

Follow your dream...
take one-step at a time,
don't settle for less just continue to climb.

Follow your dream...
if you stumble, don't stop,
don't lose sight of your goal,
press on to the top.

For only on top can we see the whole view, can we see what we've done
and what we can do.
Can we then have the vision to see something new... press on... and follow your dream...

Love, Mom and Dad
